

Public Notice of Intent to Apply for Membership to the Central Texas Water Alliance (CTWA)

Lampasas County

Notice is hereby given that Lampasas County, a political subdivision of the State of Texas, intends to submit a formal application for Participating Membership in the Central Texas Water Alliance (CTWA), a statutorily authorized regional water authority, pursuant to Senate Bill 1194 (89th Legislature, 2025) and informed by public notice principles in 31 TAC §357.21,

Lampasas County (“County”) is a political subdivision of the State of Texas and a unit of local government authorized to conduct “county business” through its constitutional governing body, the Lampasas County Commissioners Court. Lampasas County was formed by the Sixth Texas Legislature on February 1, 1856; organized on March 10, 1856 as a county of the State of Texas.

This notice is published in accordance with the following legal authorities and procedural requirements of Texas Government Code Chapter 551 (Open Meetings Act), requiring advance public notice of meetings and hearings; and Texas Government Code Chapter 552 (Public Information Act), ensuring public access to information related to governmental decision-making.

CTWA will hold a public hearing to consider membership applications, providing the applicant opportunity for presentation and public input before any vote, in compliance with SB 1194 and guided by principles of procedural transparency.

Public comments to the applicant are encouraged prior to the hearing and all received comments will be incorporated into the internal review prior to our formal application submittal.

CTWA application Review, Prescribed Public Hearing and Regular Board Meeting is set for March 5, 2026 @ 2:00pm, at the McLennan County Agri-Life Extension Building located at 4224 Cobbs Drive, Waco, TX.
